

BUNBURY INDUSTRIAL CONTROLS

Bunbury Industrial Controls (BIC) has been actively servicing the oil and gas industry for over 10 years.

Specialising in Automation Controls and Instrumentation, BIC offer a diverse range of products and services that can be custom designed for any required application/installation. BIC have undertaken design, build, test, commissioning and field service of various automation systems within the industry. We can also offer emergency on-site field service and can usually have an experienced engineer available at short notice to assist in breakdown situations relating but not limited to: PLCs, Operator Interfaces, VSD/Soft Starters and Communications. BIC personal are highly trained in the field of Automation, all having many years of technical experience and are available at competitive rates.

Bunbury Industrial Controls can offer the Oil and Gas Industry a range of products and services Including: -

Sales and Support of Industrial Control and Instrumentation Equipment

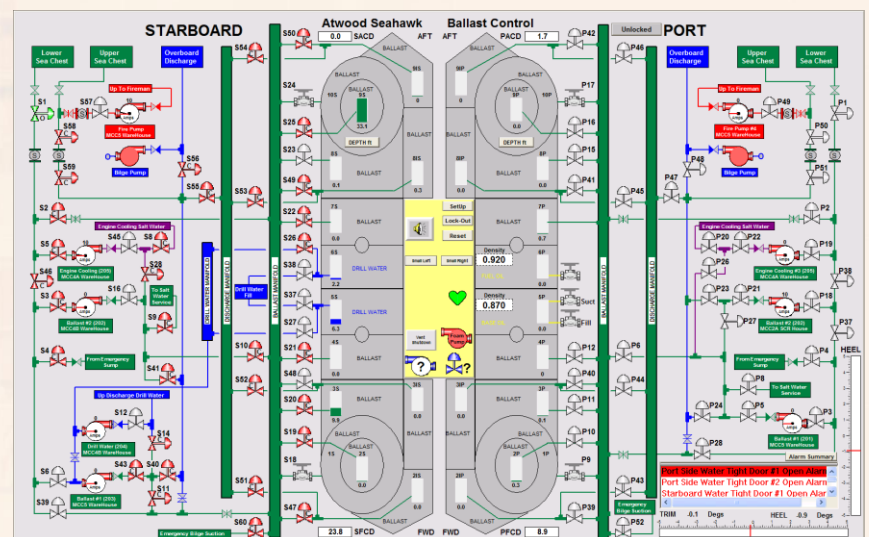

- PLCs, SCADA, Industrial Networks
- Instrumentation including refurbishment/Calibration
- Thermo graphic surveys
- Industrial Control Equipment

Engineering and Technical Services

- Control System Design Including New Installations and Modification/Retrofits to Existing Equipment.
- Instrumentation Selection, Supply, Installation and Commissioning
- Fiber Optic & Copper Network Designs
- SCADA Software Design
- PLC Programming/Modifications

Previous Projects Undertaken

- Ballast Control/Monitoring
- Winch Control/Monitoring
- Level Control/Monitoring
- Total Rig Alarm Systems
- SCADA Software Design
- PLC Modifications
- Emergency Breakdown Service

Ballast Control / Monitoring System

BIC Engineering - Quality Automation Solutions